Reports from Committees

L. Kabel - reported that the Sioux Narrows Provincial Park hosted a wedding with over 200 guests over the August long weekend. The park was also at full capacity with regular customers. The Park Manager, B. Williams, did a great job keeping everything in good order.

N. Dufresne - reported that the First Annual Nestor Falls Softball Tournament held at Bass Lake Park during the August long weekend was a huge success. Reported that the Annual Nestor Falls Recreation Committee's Pig Roast event was also a great success.

B. Thompson - reported that he has attended several KDSB Kenora Ambulance Base committee meetings and it seems that the matter will be settled. Reported that he attended the Dryden Centennial Celebrations at which the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario was present as well as representatives from most communities in the region. Reported that he also attended the Pig Roast and watched the Softball Tournament finals. Congratulations on the organizers for a job well done.
